

RAISING YOUR SON TOWARD BOYISH IRRESPONSIBILITY OR INTENTIONAL MANHOOD?

The Special Love Between A Mother And Her Son

We have encouraged the shared masculinity of Father and Son relationships, celebrated the unique femininity of Mothers and Daughters, and we even revel in the love between a Father and Daughter. Now is your opportunity to explore the special love between a Mother and her Son.

Just as a girl needs her Dad if she is to become an emotionally whole woman, a son needs his Mother to become an emotionally whole man. In a culture confused about the issues of gender, we must meet the God-designed needs of our children by using the influence that only we, as parents, have.

Chris Clevenger has been married 20 years and has five children. She is a strong advocate of adoption, having been adopted as a young woman, as well as adopting three of her own children. Chris loves athletics, teaching, and studying relational issues, and is currently working toward a degree in neuropsychology.
